M. P. HEAVILY FINED FOR HOARDING FOOD

LONDON, Feb. 5.-William John Mac-Grath MacCaw, member of Parliament. has been fined $2,000 and $175 costs be-cause he had $60 pounds of food at his country home. The specific charge was hoarding. He claimed that since he did not live in town, he could not come in daily for his supply of food. Baron Rhondda, food controller today asked that in the future the magistrates inflict straight prison sentences in such

At Once! Stops Stomach Misery and Indigestion

"Pape's Diapepsin" makes sick, sour, gassy Stomachs feel fine.

I/O some foods you eat hit back—tasie good, but work badly, ferment into acids and cause a sick, sour, rassy stomach? Now, Mr. or Mrs. Dyapeptic, jot this down: Pape's Diapepsin helps neutralise the excessive acids in the stomach so your food won't sour and upset you. There never was anything so safely quick, so certainly effective. No difference how badly your stomach is upset you usually get happy relief in five minutes, but what pleases you most is that it helps to regulate your stomach so you can eat your favorite foods without fear.

Most remedies give you relief sometimes—they are slow, but not sure. "Pape's Diapepein" is positive in neutralizing the acidity, so the misery won't come back very wights.

You feel different as soon as "Pape's Diapepsin" comes in contact with the stomach distress just vanishes—your stomach gets sweet, no gases, no belching, no eructations of undigested food, your head clears and you feel fine. to now, make the best investigation of the control of pepsin from any drug store. You realize in five minutes how need-less it is to suffer from indigestion. dyspepsia, or any stomach disorder due to acid fermentation.

THERE WAS A DAY

Southern Relief Ball Attended

By JEAN ELIOT.

It was a big ball, a brilliant ball, a highly successful ball, for the world, his wife, his sisters and his ousins and his aunts were there; but somehow it didn't seem quite like he time-honored Southern Relief Ball. The war-which has a lot to answer

The war—which has a lot to enswer for these days—was responsible, no doubt, the war which has brought to Washington thousends of striking looking, smartly clad men and women from all over the United States. They were quite numerously present, striking a note of progressiveness and modernity in contrast to the fine, ante-bellum key which usually characterizes the annual ball of the Southern Belief Society.

Southern Relief Society.

Not that the conservative Southern clement was lacking, the element which has only been "reconstructed" since the blue and the gray have been fighting under one flag in France. Dear me, no! There were scores of dainty little ladies present. whose rare old laces and quaint jewels are only brought from their wrap-pings for one ball a year, and that the Southern Relief; and the gray of the Confederate uniform, the patheti livery of a lost cause, mingled with the olire drab and blue of the army and many of today, and the more striking uniforms of our ailies.

Monster Crowd.

This was the conversation I over heard as I entered the doorway: "Crowded! Why, my dear, I believe there are more people here than there were at the Charity Ball!" and in answer, "Of course, there are. It's a bigger crowd than Billy Sunday brings to the tabernacle."

But let's go back and begin at the beginning. The time was last night, from 9 o'clock until well after 2 whon the strains of "Home. Sweet Home" beth Howry, Miss Hoyle, Senator beth last dancers scurrying for home. The place was the Willard. And the girl—well, there were pretty girls account to make the custom.
